

Impact! for Business

Make an impact in business and build relationships confidently with this two day programme

Effective communication in today's fast-moving business environment is essential.

Equally essential is the ability to build relationships and make an impact in business by mastering the attributes of professionalism, etiquette and conduct.

Impact! for Business shows participants how they can build their professional relationships and image by practising these core skills.

By the end of the programme participants are able to:

	Make an immediate impression on their business partners and colleagues
	Build positive professional relationships
	Discover their current business impact quotient
	Increase your confidence with a better understanding of how to motivate others

Request further details here

[Translate]